

Good Morning & Welcome

to Whyteleafe Free Church

Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for he whoever loves others has fulfilled the law... And do this, understanding the present time. The hour has already come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. The night is nearly over; the day is almost here. So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armour of light.

Romans 13:9,11-12

Door-to-door this afternoon (from Paul)

A team is going out on the doors on Sunday afternoon, meeting at 4:00pm at the church. We are working in Devon Close and Bourne Park Close this week. Please cover us in prayer, whatever you are doing during the afternoon. If you can join the prayer group at the church, better still!

Church meeting

Coming up on June 29 will be our termly church meeting. It will again be a shared supper, starting at 6:30pm, with the meeting itself beginning at 8:00pm. Come to both or just one if that is all that you are able to manage. Everyone is encouraged to attend, not just church members.

Richard & Gill's homegroup

Just a reminder for all housegroup members, the evening will be lighter than usual as we shall be looking at verses that have been meaningful to us so if you have been challenged, stimulated, encouraged, provoked, inspired, stirred or comforted do come along with your verse and if none of these come along anyway and maybe go away challenged. See you this Wednesday, 7:45pm.

Message from Joan Hadlow

The Kakamega meal is this Saturday June 17, cost is £8. Please bring contact Joan Hadlow for details or to find out if tickets are still available.

Collecting eggs : Church Re-wiring update from Joan H-D

During my days at primary school, we kept hens in our back garden. I used to race home from school to reach into the nesting boxes and feel for eggs. I can still feel the thrill of finding the hens had laid yet again and gathering up the warm eggs to take into the kitchen. I've been getting the same sensation when discovering yet another gift has been received for our re-wiring task. If my arithmetic is correct, the fund now stands at £3,340. Thank you everyone and thank you Lord. Just a short distance to go now – please give me that thrill again and look forward to a really good job done in August. We will enjoy the new wiring all the more knowing we contributed to the fund as the Lord directs us.

Child Protection Policy meeting – all welcome (from Paul)

It has been confirmed with the Council the dates for the Child Protection meetings will be 18 and 22 June, Sunday and Thursday respectively. Jacqui and Jenny have been called to familiarise all of us who work with children at any level. They will advise us of the fine points of the policy that we have agreed to with the CPAS, and to ensure that all who work with the children are fully aware of the pitfalls and challenges. No church can afford to be blasé about these issues today. Consequently, everyone is invited, because they are open meetings, and have relevance for us all – parents, singles, those who relate to children in whatever capacity, whether or not in a role of formal spiritual leadership. Those who are required to attend are, nevertheless, those who do have such a formal role, or who may feel led to take one on, whether occasionally or regularly. Times of meetings are Sunday 7pm and Thursday 8pm, both sessions are in the Church Hall.
